BLESSED LUIGI GUANELLA A SAINT!

Blessed Luigi Guanella will be canonized next Sunday October 23, 2011 in Rome by Pope Benedict XVI.

Saint Luigi Guanella is the Founder of the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence the Sisters who served Our Lady of Sorrows parish for more than 25 years and are conducting the VANSPEC program in the archdiocese of Vancouver. The stain glass window at the right side when you enter our church is dedicated to St. Luigi Guanella. He founded also the Servants of Charity. Blessed Louis Guanella was born on December 19, 1842 in the small village of Fraciscio, Italy in the Alps. Fr. Guanella was ordained a priest on May 26, 1866 in Como. In December 1912, Fr. Guanella traveled to the major cities of America, and saw for himself what deplorable conditions emigrants from Italy and the rest of the world were living in.

Don Luigi Guanella died on October 24, 1915, He was beatified by Pope Paul VI on October 25, 1964 and will be canonized by Pope Benedict XVI next Sunday, October 23, 2011 in Rome.
