Announcements

Jesus makes charity the new commandment. By loving his own "to the end," he makes manifest the Father's love which he receives. By loving one another, the disciples imitate the love of Jesus which they themselves receive. Whence Jesus says: "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you; abide in my love." And again: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you." CCC 1823

Prayer for the victims of violence in Pittsburgh

In these sad times where persons are gunned down even in their places of worship we pray that the violence stop and that as a society we may do all we can to keep innocent people, going about their daily lives, from having their lives cut short in such a shameful way. We pray that God may take into his loving embrace our brothers and sisters who lost their lives while attending Shabbat in their synagogue in Pittsburgh. We pray for their families and the community to which they belong. We pray for the Jewish people that through history have suffered such grave attacks against them.
